

Papers of:
Dean Acheson

BYRON R. WHITE
CIRCUIT JUSTICE
WASHINGTON 11, D. C.

J. PICKETT
CHEYENNE, WYO.
DAVID T. LEWIS
SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH
JEAN S. BREITENSTEIN
DENVER, COLO.
DELMAS C. HILL
WICHITA, KANS.
OLIVER BETH
SANTA FE, N. MEX.

CIRCUIT JUDGES

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
TENTH CIRCUIT

Cheyenne, Wyoming
October 24, 1962

Honorable Dean Acheson
701 Union Trust Building
Washington 5, D.C.

Dear Mr. Acheson:

I have just read an article by James Reston of the New York Times in which he says that the President has accepted your policy in the present Cuban dispute and laid the blame on the Soviet Union, and not Cuba.

I got the impression from our recent visit that you had not been too well satisfied with the handling of the Cuban matter from the time that it first arose in the Kennedy administration. I have great respect for the President and have no doubt of his courage, but I feel better when he relies upon the ability and wide experience of men like you.

Mrs. Pickett and I have agreed that the evening we spent with you and Mrs. Acheson was extremely enjoyable and one that we shall not soon forget. We hope that sometime not too far away you will be able to make a trip to Wyoming. We know that you are wedded to the east, but we are also satisfied that you would enjoy our wide open spaces and some of our incomparable scenery.

Lura joins me in sending our very best regards to you and Mrs. Acheson and we both hope that you will again be able to serve your country in the serious diplomatic problems that will confront us in the immediate future.

Sincerely,

John C. Pickett.

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
TENTH CIRCUIT

Cheyenne, Wyoming
October 24, 1962

Honorable Dean Acheson
701 Union Trust Building
Washington 5, D.C.

Dear Mr. Acheson:

I have just read an article by James Reston of the New York Times in which he says that the President has accepted your policy in the present Cuban dispute and laid the blame on the Soviet Union, and not Cuba.

I got the impression from our recent visit that you had not been too well satisfied with the handling of the Cuban matter from the time that it first arose in the Kennedy administration. I have great respect for the President and have no doubt of his courage, but I feel better when he relies upon the ability and wide experience of men like you.

Mrs. Pickett and I have agreed that the evening we spent with you and Mrs. Acheson was extremely enjoyable and one that we shall not soon forget. We hope that sometime not too far away you will be able to make a trip to Wyoming. We know that you are wedded to the east, but we are also satisfied that you would enjoy our wide open spaces and some of our incomparable scenery.

Lura joins me in sending our very best regards to you and Mrs. Acheson and we both hope that you will again be able to serve your country in the serious diplomatic problems that will confront us in the immediate future.

Sincerely,

John C. Pickett.

Papers of:
Dean Acheson

State Dept. Advisory
Pickett, John C.

October 26, 1962

Dear Judge:

James Reston is an extremely able and knowledgeable man, but he doesn't know everything; and, from what you tell me of his article, it appears to be quite wrong. I have not seen it because I was sent to Europe on Sunday and only returned yesterday. When I see you, I shall be glad to tell you the story of the crisis as it developed and give you the annals of my Odyssey. But for the present, in what may be a quickly changing situation, I think discretion is called for.

We had a delightful evening with you and Mrs. Pickett, and hope that it will not be too long before we can all be together again.

Sincerely yours,

The Honorable
John C. Pickett,
Circuit Judge,
United States Court of Appeals
for the Tenth Circuit,
Cheyenne, Wyoming.